

Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

Module 1 Assignment

- Name Ebrahim Tahasoni
- Student number 5005
- Date 1 August 2010

Tutor's comments:

Question 1: An extensive and substantial account of how you learnt German as an adult learner, highlighting both the merits and drawbacks of the teaching methods you encountered. Grammar almost flawless throughout, with a wide academic vocabulary, used naturally and appropriately. Fluently written, which made the flow of the essay easy to read and akin to that of a native-speaker. Well-balanced critical assessment, which puts the responsibility on the teacher to assess the students in order to choose the teaching method most suited to their learner needs. You are to be highly-commended for an outstanding and original piece of writing.

Question 2: An exceptional description of how to teach the Past Perfect, with clear presentation and concept checking. Your understanding of how to make this work in the classroom is further exemplified in the problems you anticipated learners may have with this tense and the relevant activities given to solve these. Well done.

Question 3: You show a strong understanding of what these TESOL terms mean. Each term was clearly described in your own words with appropriate details to clarify your ideas.
